

Warm the Cold Corners

"I DECLARE," said Mrs. Comfort, "I thought no one ever would use that upstairs room. And you couldn't blame them—it certainly was chilly, and there didn't seem to be any way of heating it. Finally I got this Perfection Heater and now it is as good as an attic room. With a Perfection to keep it warm it is perfectly comfortable." The Perfection can be carried anywhere, where there is need of extra heat. In five minutes it will warm any ordinary room.

ANOTHER SPELLING AND PENMANSHIP CONTEST NOV. 23

1. The contest in each subject will be divided into two sections, one for Rural schools and one for City and Town schools, so that rural schools will compete with rural schools and city schools with city schools.

2. In the Rural Schools Section each county will be entitled to one contestant in Spelling and one in Penmanship.

(a) The county's representative in the Spelling contest will be selected as follows: Each rural school will hold its local contest and select its best speller from pupils of the eighth grade or below. The winner will then be eligible to enter the County contest, to be held at a place and time fixed by the County Superintendent. The winner in this contest will represent his county in the State contest to be held at Albuquerque, Monday morning, November 23, 1914.

(b) The county's representative in the penmanship contest will be selected as follows: Each rural school will hold its local contest among pupils of the eighth grade or below. Let each contestant copy in ink, from some book, a paragraph long enough to make about one page of script on legal cap paper, and then turn it over and write the name of the county and his own name and address and his grade in school. The principal of school will then select the best specimen and send it to the County Superintendent. Then the County Superintendent, jointly with two other teachers, will select the best specimen from all of these submitted. This will be the winner of the county contest, and will represent the county in the State contest. The Superintendent will sign it and send it to John H. Vaughan, State College, not later than November 15, 1914.

NOTE: It will not be necessary for the penmanship contestant to go to Albuquerque.

3. The city and Town School Section will be composed of one representative from each incorporated city, town, or village, in the contest in spelling and one in penmanship.

These representatives will be selected from pupils in the eighth grade and below, the selection to be made under the direction of the City Superintendent or Town Principal.

The Penmanship specimen submitted to the State competition should conform to the general requirements for those in the Rural school section, and should be sent in as there directed.

The Spelling contestant should be in Albuquerque for the contest Monday morning, November 23.

4. First and second prizes will be awarded in each subject and section, 5 Words in the spelling contest will be taken from Reed's Word Lists.

THE WASTE OF WAR

The war that now engulfs Europe is only a preface to the story of sorrow and desolation that will follow.

The lives that are lost, the cities that are destroyed and the resources that are wasted will have their greatest effect upon future generations.

Until the last chapter is reached their will be a story of stagnant industries, desolate homes, barren fields and fatherless children.

While this great conflict of waste is being waged we Americans are fighting the Battles of Peace.

An army of 150,000 men and women enlisted in the ranks of the Bell System serves the telephone wants of the American public.

Over 6000 of these people work right here in the seven mountain states every day of the year.
